KIT Solutions® selects Intelmarx to spur collaboration among state substance abuse agencies

Intelmarx's ThoughtShare™ software will connect Department of Health agencies in 16 states to help in fighting drug and substance abuse.

(Altoona, PA - July 11, 2008) – KIT (Knowledge-Based Information Technology) Solutions, LLC, a Pittsburgh-based company, provides data management solutions for all levels of the Human Service Sector. KIT has hired Intelmarx to create a collaboration and knowledge sharing application for its clients. Using Intelmarx's ThoughtShare™, KIT Solutions® will connect Department of Health department heads in 16 states (Pa., Va., S.C., Fla., R.I., Maine, Wash., Colo., S.D., N.Y., Calif., Hawaii, N.H., N.C., Ariz., Tenn.), The National Association of Drug and Alcohol Abuse Directors, National Prevention Network and the National Treatment Network. ThoughtShare's ultimate goal for KIT Solutions® is for the aforementioned stakeholders to share best practices in measuring impact and performance outcomes which will lead to improved decision making based on increased knowledge, better tracking of funding and satisfying grant reporting and finally enabling policy makers, government agencies, private foundations, researchers, and field practitioners to improve the management of information, communications, and business processes.

ThoughtShare™ will also establish "Learning Communities" made up of KIT Solutions® clients across the nation so that a collective intelligence is available to continuously evolve KIT's services.
