The extensive government & non-profit experience of Intelmarx's grant writers lends its grant services to non-profit, industry, and government clients.

Intelmarx's grant writers have facilitated and/or managed nearly $1 million dollars in economic development, corporate, and foundation grants and sponsorships for non-profit clients.

Intelmarx, LLC leverages its grant writers' background in developing a state-wide youth retention and attraction grant program for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania-

PA Department of Community and Economic Development- with over 800 partnering organizations; managing the approval process of over $6 million dollars in grant funding for strategies and projects; and leveraging over $14 million dollars in matching funds. All told, over 90 funded projects for over $20.7 million dollars.

Results:

These results were obtained with the help of Intelmarx's seasoned grant writers.

PA Angel Network - Grant writing, creation of sponsorship packages. Development of sponsors, grant management, and project implementation of over $894,000 in government, economic development, corporate and foundation funding. Projects include a due diligence fellowship program with college students. Students conduct due diligence for angel investors related to companies in the Clean and Green, Life Sciences or IT industries. Students represent angel investors at national environmental leaders networking events, and angel outreach to economic development partners across Pennsylvania.

Skate Erie Association - Grant writing that secured $40,000 from the Tony Hawk Foundation and the Erie Community Foundation for the construction of a concrete skate park. The $25,000 Tony Hawk Foundation grant was one of only three grant awards nationwide at the maximum funding level. The $15,000 Erie Community Foundation grant was at the high end of the Quality of Life round's typical funding range.
